

HOTEL CHÂTEAU
CHÂTEAU DU GRAND-LUCÉ

CLASSIC SPLENDOR

In 1760, Baron Jacques Pineau de Viennay instructed architect Mathieu de Bayeux to construct a summer palace on the Baron's medieval castle site. Pineau de Viennay demanded the most au courant in design — it was to represent the pinnacle of eighteenth-century extravagance. Numerous statues commissioned by King Louis XV (exact replicas of statues at Versailles) were placed on the Château grounds as a gift to the Baron. In 1764, the Château du Grand-Lucé was completed — a stunning representation of classicism and modernity — intended for splendor.

The Château and the gardens were constructed with precision and symmetry on a North-South axis. It was a beacon for the Age of Enlightenment and hosted visitors, including Voltaire, Rousseau, and Diderot. During WWII, paintings from the Louvre were hidden in the Château, and for a period, it was used as a hospital for wounded British officers.

Set on a private enclave of eighty acres surrounded by its original medieval wall, The Château du Grand-Lucé, one of France's finest examples of neoclassical architecture, is now home to Hotel Château. Following an exquisite restoration and refurbishment, the meticulous transformation honors the building's architectural heritage as a mid-18th-century masterpiece and one of the few structures to survive the French Revolution completely intact. The resplendent property is also home to a ballroom, Le Lucé restaurant, Jack Pine's bar, spa, fitness salon, outdoor pool, classic French gardens, potager gardens, orchards, lake and a private historic white oak forest.

The Château has survived wars and revolutions, hosted nobles, writers and philosophers, and has been the exquisite backdrop to diplomatic events, weddings and celebrations. After an immaculate restoration of the gardens and interiors, Hotel Château is opened to fulfill the purpose for which it was originally intended — to host and inspire the most discerning traveler.

“THE PERSON WHO HAS LIVED THE MOST IS NOT THE ONE WITH THE MOST YEARS
BUT THE ONE WITH THE RICHEST EXPERIENCES.” —JEAN-JACQUES ROUSSEAU

THE NEW NOBLE

Hotel Château is located in the idyllic village of Le Grand-Lucé, in the Loire Valley, just south of Paris. Its unapologetically opulent chic interiors are a stunning tribute to its noble provenance and are a gallant steward of its rich history. With a certain éclat reflecting lifetimes of pure refinement, Hotel Château — with reimaged rooms and suites, ballroom and salons, classical gardens and grounds — delivers unparalleled service and uncompromising splendor.

Hotel Château has a total of 19 rooms and suites, including two fabulous pieds-à-terre complete with their own petites cuisines. The Baron's Suite, with a private library, petit salon, garden entrance and exclusive access to the extraordinary Salon Chinois — named for the canvas covered walls painted with Chinoiserie murals by Jean-Baptiste Pillement — is quite possibly the most remarkable suite in Europe.

The interiors and gardens of Hotel Château have been meticulously restored with an incredible reverence to the Castle's history, while adding layers of modern splendor. Guest rooms are filled with curated antiques and vintage pieces. The finishes include French fabrics and archival documented wallpapers, from visionaries like Pierre Frey, Christian Lacroix, Jean-Paul Gaultier and de Gournay. The impossibly luxe beds are custom made and stacked with fine European linens and lofty down duvets.

The restaurant, Le Lucé, with reclaimed tomette floors, exposed timbers overhead, and grand casement windows facing the formal gardens, is captivating. The classic French dishes are prepared with a reverence for tradition, and a nod to refined modern simplicity, sourcing locally, and prepared with produce from the Château's gardens and orchards. Adjoining Le Lucé is a bar built in the former private chapel of the Baron de Lucé. Cheekily named Jack Pine's (the English translation of the Baron's name — Jacques Pineau de Viennay) in honor of our French-American partnership, it is here that guests can enjoy convivial conversation, try some house cocktails infused with herbs from the potager gardens, and taste fare from Chef Thomas' elevated Bistro menu.

The Loire Valley is filled with fabulous châteaux and gardens to tour. Famous for its Sancerre wine, vineyards are plentiful where private tastings and picnics can be arranged. There is antiquing in La Chartre-sur-le-Loir, biking through the Bercé forest and fields filled with sunflowers and mustard, and touring La Cité Plantagenêt in Le Mans. Easy day trips include the beaches of Normandy, the historic town of Amboise (Leonardo Da Vinci's residence), and of course Paris, 55 minutes by train. Although tempting to tour the French countryside, it may prove hard to leave Hotel Château as it all feels quite noble.

WEDDINGS + EVENTS

Hotel Château is an incredible destination for any event and an enchanting location for a wedding. Built for a nobleman, the Château and its grounds are breathtaking. The symmetry and precision of the formal French gardens coupled with the eighteenth-century neoclassical architecture of the forty-five thousand square foot Château is extraordinary.

Set in the village of Le Grand-Lucé, Hotel Château is surrounded by the bucolic French countryside. Steps from the gate of the Château, and across the cobblestone square, is an eleventh century church, complete with spire and melodic bells. Two bakeries in town assure that fresh-baked pastries and baguettes are available daily.

From a grand wedding or event of noble proportions to an intimate soirée in the garden, Hotel Château has infinite possibilities. The eighty acres of Loire Valley beauty surrounded by a medieval wall and featuring a lake, meadows, exquisite gardens and a historic white oak forest are otherworldly. With multiple courtyards, terraces, and secret gardens — the options for an event are limitless.

A ballroom of royal proportions designed in the former stables allows events year-round, in any type of weather. The original twelve-foot tall windows of the ballroom have been draped in a fabulous custom-colored Pierre Frey velvet inspired by the green of the garden, gorgeous French oak point de Hongrie flooring, and resplendent crystal chandeliers and sconces have been installed, resulting in unequalled grandeur.

THE COUR D'HONNEUR

The Court of Honor is the stately formal courtyard, surrounded on the north by the medieval wall in which the magnificent entrance gates are set and to the south by the breathtaking front facade of the Chateau. From this vantage point, the symmetry and design of this neoclassical masterpiece are highlighted — a splendid and majestic backdrop for any special event. The millennial-old wall is lined with climbing roses and classical hydrangeas, a beautiful compliment to the verdant green blankets of grass and perfectly manicured topiaries.

PERFECT FOR: Wedding ceremonies and welcome receptions for up to 120 guests

THE HEMICYCLE

The crescent-shaped structure encircles an intimate courtyard with a peek beyond to the 11th-century church steeple in the village of Le Grand-Lucé. A grand gate opens directly to the village square, directly facing the Church, and surrounded by charming centuries-old residences.

PERFECT FOR: Welcome receptions and seated meals for up to 100 guests

THE FORMAL DINING ROOM

One of the most exquisite rooms in the Château, the Formal Dining Room is still used for its original intended purpose — hosting well-traveled guests for exceptional evenings.

Located adjacent to the entry foyer with views to the cour d'honneur, the rose-colored painted paneled walls and original limestone floor create the perfect palette for the custom gold gilt dining chairs upholstered in a rich Lelièvre gaufrage, a brilliant crystal chandelier and our notable collection of fine oil portraits. Most impressive are the stately paintings of Emperor Napoleon III and Empress Eugenie that stand guard over the pomp and flourish of this august room.

PERFECT FOR: Welcome receptions for up to 60 guests

THE MAIN FOYER + GRAND SALON

The star attraction of the Château's capacious entry hall is its stunning marble table, an ideal place to cut the wedding cake. The adjacent Grand Salon is a paragon of neoclassical architecture, with French doors that open onto the formal gardens.

The salon is resplendent with original limestone floors bearing the patina of countless footsteps, walls of dramatic height clad in fabulous boiserie and unmistakably French furnishings with an abundance of gold gilt, velvets and silks in rich saturated colors. The room is awash with the fabled Loire Valley sunlight streaming in through the striking casement windows. It is equally brilliant in the evenings with the light from our 19th-century signed Baccarat chandelier refracted through its multitude of faceted crystals.

PERFECT FOR: Cake cutting and welcome receptions for up to 44 guests

THE CENTRAL ALLÉE

Set on the North/South axis in the classical parterre, the central allée is the main promenade running through our formal gardens. In a brilliant feat of order and symmetry with near-perfect structure, the central allée, surrounded by finely manicured boxwoods, delightful topiaries, and immaculately trimmed expanses of green grass, is extraordinary. Centuries-old stone steps from the Grand Salon of the Chateau allow a storybook entrance onto the parterre. At the south end of the allée, the grand statues of Ceres, goddess of crops and harvests, and Pan, god of shepherds and flocks, gifted to nobleman Jacques Pineau de Viennay in 1764 by King Louis XV, stand watch over 21st-century fêtes. Ceres, whose spiritual powers prevail over agriculture, is also known as the guardian of marriage, ensuring good fortune to vows exchanged in her presence.

PERFECT FOR: Wedding ceremonies and seated meals for up to 120 guests

THE BALLROOM

This ballroom of royal proportions, designed in the former stables, allows events year-round in any weather. The majesty of the 22-foot-high ceilings with exposed timbers, whitewashed walls, and custom wainscoting inspired by remnants from the original stables creates an unexpected feeling of modern splendor. The original 12-foot-tall windows are draped in a fabulous custom-colored Pierre Frey velvet inspired by the green of the garden. Gorgeous French oak point de Hongrie flooring and resplendent crystal chandeliers and sconces result in unequalled grandeur.

PERFECT FOR: Seated meals for up to 80 guests, receptions and of course, dance parties for up to 120 guests

THE ORANGERIE

When tropical fruits arrived in Europe from the New World in the 17th century, fashionable households began inventing ways to shelter these delicate new arrivals from the harsher Continental seasons. Thus, the Orangerie was born. A quintessential feature of French chateaux, the Orangerie is where our citrus trees wait out the winter. In the summer months, the trees retake their previous positions around the gardens and grounds, revealing once again the architectural beauty of the 1,500-square-foot space. Sunlight streams through grand arched windows, while the vaulted ceiling and limestone walls create an inviting ambience ideal for special celebrations or simply an escape from the Loire Valley sun. Large doors open out onto the tranquil swimming pool.

PERFECT FOR: Post-wedding brunch for up to 80 guests

THE SWIMMING POOL

The Exotic Garden is at a slightly lower elevation and surrounded by walls protecting the area from wind, where the stunning swimming pool is found. This circular pool replaced one of the Château's original fountains with no disruption to the purposeful symmetry of the initial design. This extravagant garden remains incredibly warm nearly year-round, well-positioned to receive much of the Loire Valley sunshine. Planted with a brilliant variety of flowers, the Exotic Garden has original working greenhouses and the quintessential Orangerie — protecting a multitude of citrus in the winter and opening for infinite possibilities in the warmer months. Lush, colorful, and protected, this is the perfect spot to spend the long Le Grand-Lucé days.

PERFECT FOR: Casual brunches and barbecues for up to 80 guests

THE POTAGER GARDEN

Our Potager garden, or kitchen garden, is lush with herbs and vegetables, beautiful seasonal flowers and bordered by an orchard of apples and pears— all arranged in the classic french style. A fabulous outdoor stone staircase descends into the abundant bounty of the potager garden from the Chateau's formal parterre. This spot is captivating and enchanting, with sweeping views over the small lake filled with picturesque geese, past the grassy meadows, and beyond to the rolling hills of the Loire Valley.

PERFECT FOR: Wedding ceremonies and receptions for up to 100 guests
